Hey!

First off, thanks a lot for purchasing one of our packs. We're sure you'll love it! :)

Our sounds & samples are 100% royalty-free, which means that you have the legal right to use them commercially or non-commercially in combination with your own musical compositions, films, videos, games, television, radio shows, or anything similar.

Although you have licensed a product, all content remains the property of BVKER. This means that you are NOT allowed to re-sell our products or any of the files included and that you're not allowed to use our products to create competitive products, such as sample packs or preset banks or to sell any files in isolated or modified form.

If you use a loop from one of our packs you're further NOT allowed to monetize uploads from other artists using the same loop, on platforms such as YouTube for example.

All the best,
